Mustangs Best

Look around you . . .
G.M. is Growing . . .

in Maturity . . .
a modular system that put the responsibilities of conduct on each student,
creating a casual campus atmosphere
never before known to the school . . .
a monitoring system run by the students themselves . . .
new freedoms and
new responsibilities
for each individual . . .
and the entire student body . . .

in Unity . . .
a student body that rallied behind its Lasso
and its Mustang when they were in need . . .
that braved a comprehensive evaluation together,
and came out of it with flying colors . . .
and worked as one,
with the administration,
to make G.M. a better place in which to learn . . .
in Spirit . . .
a kind of growth that cannot be measured in terms of words or numbers . . . it is something you feel . . .
in the grandstands
in the assemblies
and in the halls . . .
you can't quite describe it,
but it's there . . .

and as teams win and lose,
and classes come and go,
the spirit remains . . .
. . . and grows
because the students of G.M.
wouldn't have it any other way . . .

G.M. is growing . . .
look around you,
but don't let it

pass you by . . .

A special year because it's Your school now . . .
six long years of laughing and crying and working and cheering
have made it that way . . .
saving the Lasso
and the Mustang
and providing an example of LEADERSHIP and UNITY
that G.M. will follow
for years to come . . .
but there's always time to lounge
on the smoking court
and kid around with J.D.
and enjoy
the best year of your life . . .
. . . and you look forward with mixed emotions
to that June evening when you will ring the Senior Bell for the last time . . .

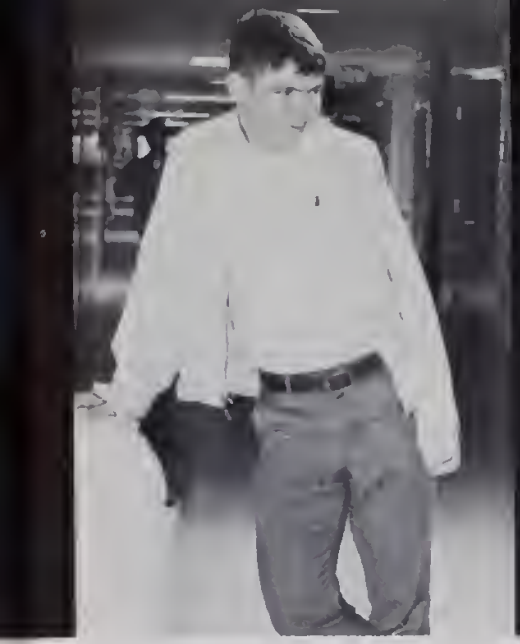
SENIORS 1967

Stephen Joseph Abramson
Steve
Life is always fun with "Simple" around. Just hint a little and he'll rattle off one of his monologues for you. With a big smile on his face, he passes out Beach Boy pictures, passionately defends Mad Magazine, or occasionally mentions some group called Mottsac.

Francis Acosta
Happy
Happy is well known and liked for his warm personality and extensive talents. His guitar has entertained many from G.M. to O.C. When not soliciting funds for the Film Union, or talking a teacher out of a bad mood, Happy just tries to be . . . Happy.

Dan Alim
Dan
Best known as "Fat Dan", this walking encyclopedia of car facts roamed the halls looking for a victim. His speeches all began with a poking finger and the great statement of "Let me tell you!"

Robert Carl Allder
Bob
Bob is one of G.M.'s more outstanding products. Despite his wild weekends, he has managed to meet his athletic obligations, showing his skill in football and soccer. He has a well-rounded personality: well-dressed, well-known, well-built, well-liked . . . well, well.



Thomas Wayne Allder
Tom
Tom could always be found cramming for a chemistry or physics test or just riding around in his little blue MGB. G.M.'s only legal student voter. Tom was envied for his beautiful blond hair and exquisite clothes, but will be most remembered for the ready ear he had for everyone's problems.

Robert Arant
Bob
Hawaii's gift to George Mason, complete with grades, Bob was truly someone to marvel at. Whenever asked to work, he pitched in whole-heartedly, and will long be remembered for his outstanding intelligence. Will we ever forget his mod slacks?

James Robert Austin
Jimmy
The co-captain of the football team was a quiet fan of "long hair". A Valiant with a white racing stripe . . . Christmas King . . . slow smile . . . Jimmy was Jimmy.

Kathleen K. Badovinac
Kathy
It seems that Kathy is perpetual motion. She's a happy kind of person who is always ready to help with Chemistry homework or listen to other's problems.

Charlotte Bennett Charlotte
Voted Most Scholarly, Charlotte is an authority on everything from French verbs to Chemistry equations. Petite Charlotte, who keeps the clubs in business, is loved and respected by everyone for her kindness and sincerity.

Elizabeth Page Beverly Page
One of our "red" heads, Page works hard arranging a beautiful wardrobe, when not roaming the halls looking for fun. Wherever you go, there is Page, ready to help for any cause. And as many say . . . "another Page in life" . . . a wonderful Page.

Steven Paul Ballard
Steve
As an O'Connell convert, Steve fit into our hectic school schedule with ease. Whether taking off in one of his "sports coops" or struggling through Government, he looks forward to graduation with anticipation.

David Batchelor
David
As an officer of the Hi-Y, Dave was always ready to serve and help for the G.M. cause. Dave will be remembered for his metalworking and mechanical ability, and as being the life of Mr. Davis' English class.

Carlene Loretta Black Connie
Connie's the petite girl with the long brown hair and happy smile. Friendly and witty, to be around her is to laugh. A good friend, she'll listen to everyone's sad story.

Edward Herman Bloebaum
Ed
A quiet lad, Ed finds it difficult to keep his mind off the class across the hall. Always finding time to sleep during school . . . always first to leave class . . . somewhere he finds time to pull good grades.

Dorothy Susan Boland
Dorothy
Head señorita of the Spanish Club and Spanish Honor Society, Dorothy did more than her share of service to the school. With her jovial attitude, she was ever ready with the latest news concerning la clase de '67.

Sherri Eileen Borellis
Sherri
Coming from Texas at the beginning of her Junior year, Sherri quickly became part of the Spirit of '67. Usually seen bombing around in her '60 Falcon, twirling a flashy baton, or typing everything, she was a beautiful Senior attendant at Homecoming.

Katherine Fenton Bowie
Kay

With her long hair, pretty face, and constant smile, Kay was present at all football games, watching with crossed fingers. Ready for fun at the smallest suggestion, she would put on a large jersey, for football or basketball and head for Roberts Park. Half the Christmas Court . . . half of Kay and Jimmy.

Brenda Fay Brittain Brenda

Miss S.C.A. Doughnut Queen . . . if you ever needed to be cheered up, Brenda was the one to talk to. As she "piloted" her way down the halls, "The Red Baron" was and is completely unpredictable. Known for her "unique" laugh, and imitations of her mother's driving, she could make any situation hysterical.

William Cecil Brown
Bill

Bill is the silent one who is always dropping things and then looking at them in a puzzled, forlorn way. He spent this year sleeping or opening invitations from colleges, though occasionally he could be seen on a basketball court, or running backwards in a cross-country race.

Charles Millard Browning
Charlie

While leading our class to great accomplishments and recognition, Charlie, as our "Best Leader", took time to find the joys in life . . . guided by a lone star and the sounds of laughter. Hard working when the need arises . . . Charlie.

Elizabeth G. Browning
Liddy

An active member of the Class of '67, Liddy has a ready wit. She could often be seen pounding a gavel on Mrs. Wither's desk, skipping down the hall, playing hop scotch, running across the front lawn, or cheering our teams on to victory.

Alison Ross Buchanan
Alison

Our SUPER-lass from Scotland, Alison and her never failing sense of humor was always around. Whether trying to understand Mr. McBlair's puns, cheering on the SIMARITANS, or finding new things to do in her "Wonderland", she will long be remembered for her LOVE of ice cream.

Linda Katherine Bunch
Linda

Linda is one of those rare people who seem to be in a good mood all of the time. To her, Fantastic and Peter, Paul, and Mary are synonymous. Just ask her and then settle back for an enjoyable hour of enumerations on the subject.

Kathleen Burns
Kate

The great "dunker", Kate was a very active member of the Senior girls basketball team. Her infectious laugh and crazy personality made almost every "gathering" an experience.

John Blair Buchanan, II
Jack

A connoisseur of "wine, women, and song" . . . Mrs. Rooney's Ichabod . . . Senior girl's coach, Jack is G.M.'s answer to Surfer Joe. But remember, "live and learn, die and forget."

Barry David Buschow
Barry
Though a loyal member of the G.M. band, Barry somehow found time to play basketball in Roberts Park. A tall easy-going guy, with red hair, his slow smile and "Well Hello Miss —— !", made him a great friend.

Sara Lee Carlson
Sally
Our answer to the "Little Old Lady from Pasadena", Granny is not one to sit around, whether it be dancing to "Frostie" or doing her funny commercials. Sally takes an active part in class and club activities. Sally is . . . Sally.

Terrence Lord Carroll
Terry
The small lad with the big laugh . . . Terry could usually be found putting any group into hysterics with his antics. Popping into Physics just for fun, he could be seen with a sly "what now?" smile.

Neall Wayne Case
Neall
The driver of the blue Fiat made his mark on the track team as a hurdler. Neall was always ready to give a smile and a friendly hello to everyone. His work for the class of '67 will never be forgotten.

Francis Edward Cavanaugh Eddie
Big, good-natured, and understanding, Eddie kept us all informed on "What's Happening" every weekend. The master of bookkeeping, he's constantly baffled by the female sex.

Evelyn Jone Chamblee
Lynn

With a "Hi" for everyone, our little "Southern Bell" has her own unique laugh, eyes, walk, and sharp wit. You always know when Lynn is around . . . there is always laughter. Her incomparable personality will not soon be forgotten.

Mark Stephan Chapman
Mark

A quiet boy . . . a serious attitude . . . a great drive . . . Mark makes the best of any situation put before him. A lover of good music, he is always at band concerts.

James Roger Chorovich
Tro

One of the taller members of the Senior class, Tro was constantly ready for fun and games. Wearing many "unusual" clothes, he would bop from class to class with hopes of finding more of the interesting things in life.

Sybil Derrington Clewlow
Sybil

Sybil is an individual both in personality and ideas, always willing to fight for what she believes. She not only has the ability to cheer up people with her friendly and sincere warmth, but is also an excellent equestrian.

James Edward Coburn
Jimmy

As our "most exultant and fearless leader", Jimmy finds that he gets neck cramps from trying to face up to his fellow Seniors. Playing Sonny with Cecil . . . dreaming of picnics at Great Falls . . . a quick wit and easy going attitude, Jimmy is popular . . . even with the Seventh Grade.

David Edward Comer
David

The Animal was always a threat to opposition, on the field, court, or track. A different side showed at times . . . quiet and sincere. Often found in the mechanical drawing room, or eating doughnuts in the cafeteria, David will long be remembered for keeping the halls of G.M. "quiet".

Howard Conover
Lynn

The only one who could brag about getting his own GTO for Christmas, Lynn could usually be found at all the away basketball games. Under the hood more often than behind the wheel, he was always looking for the fun in school.

William Randolph Cooksey
Billy

George Mason's own "little drummer boy" . . . Mrs. Willey's candy bandit . . . and Mrs. Krum's gusano . . . his wit, personality, charm, and frequent change of cars made him unpredictable and a candidate for Mr. Cassanova.

Susan Cooper
Susan
A funny girl with short cropped, blond hair, Susan was always ready on the rebound with sharp wit or a happy smile. Will she ever forget Mr. Dietz's class or moreover will Mr. Dietz ever forget her?

Thelma Belle Cornett Thelma
Somewhat shy, Thelma was one of the quieter Senior members. From singing soprano in the choir to running around with Bev and Dorothy, her quick smile and pretty eyes made her a good friend.

Vera Christina Cortada
Nina
Being able to defend Santa Claus to Mr. Dietz while keeping her always present smile on her always present face was something only Nina could do. Playing Annabelle now . . . Dudley Do Right next . . . there was no predicting what Nina could be up to in the future.

Zachary Booth Cotner
Zach
A two figure man on the basketball court, Zach often talked about a scholarship to Harvard (?) Student in the daytime, Casino Man at night, Zach struggled through Government with the rest of us, priding himself on his choice of steers. Texas anyone?

Robin Lynn Crawford
Robin

One of the more artistic Seniors, Robin prides herself on her latest creations in women's fashions. Adding a colorful and completely unique touch to the Senior Court, she was always willing to help her class of '67.

William Woodson Crocker, III
Bill

In his own quiet way, Bill made his presence known around school. As G.M.'s most lettered man, he was a sensation on the track and made good as an end on the football field. He could often be seen looking for the driver of a certain white convertible, or arguing with Mr. Sommer over "red".

William Hall Davies
Bill

Bill, the sole organizer of the N.R.A. and the owner of a "'54 Bomb" that will live on forever. His quiet, reserved manner disguises his exceptional power both in cross-country and track.

Ellen Wynne Davis
Ellen

A fun-loving girl, Ellen looks forward to and thoroughly enjoys the better things in life. Having a love for true art, Ellen often goes to ballets and musicals. Her greatest hope is to be an airline stewardess.

Joy Annice Davis
Joy

A constantly bubbling personality adorns this sweet natured but fun loving gal. Always willing to give of her time and energy to the SIMARITANS, Joy truly lives up to her name.

Lawrence Henry Davis
Larry

"Your bus has a hole in the roof", was always the first statement Larry got when offering rides to or from anywhere. This sometimes quiet boy often erupted into a fit of laughter which was caught by all those around him. With a "hi" for all, he was everyone's friend.

Catherine Ann Dixson
Cathy

Two French poodles, a VW and Cathy. Whether playing Senior games or roaming the halls, Cathy took time to give advice to all those in need. She welcomes graduation and all that it brings.

Mary Clare Doyle
Mary

A touch of Boston . . . a touch of fun . . . a touch of red hair . . . a little love . . . and a great desire to go North. Mary, a welcome addition, became an overnight hit with everyone. True friendship, warmth, and wishing the best for all . . . Mary.

Iris deButts
Dewey

Short blond hair, a smiling face, twinkling eyes, and a small sports car . . . Dewey supplied all the ambitious energy and help needed to make any day complete. Her effervescent personality could get anyone out of a bad mood.

George Philips Eager
Phil

This behind the scene man was really someone to wonder about. Coming up with many witticisms at times, Phil could usually be found slaving over his books . . . well, sometimes. In his free time he could be found almost anywhere.

Charles Harold Elam, Jr.
Charles

The boy who just "loved" mechanical drawing . . . the boy who displayed much talent in bowling . . . the boy with a laugh for anything . . . the boy you paid a penny to throw away your trash!

Sarah Ellis
Sally

Sally . . . with long silky blonde hair, a spray of freckles across her cheeks, and a sincere smile . . . Sally from Hawaii, Sally with many hopes to go back.

William Harold Ellis
Bill

When not raiding Mrs. Willey's candy jar, Bill was usually found on the smoking court or playing tennis shoe during lunch. One of the friendliest SIMARITANS, he loved, even more than Mr. Dietz's classes, Tehaan's pizza, 1940 tuxedoes, and driving a slightly used white Plymouth.

Robert Fall Farris
Rob
Known to all as "Greasy". Rob walked the halls of G.M. with a grin that made everyone wonder what he had been up to. Holding the record for breaking the most sbift lever knobs in one year, he was also a pitcher on the baseball team, and frequently shot ace candids.

John Young Fisher
John
Working diligently on his car . . . playing basketball in Robert's Park . . . or throwing a baseball around, John could usually be seen with Put or David. He was hard-working, fun-loving, and always taking time to study.

Catherine Fraleigh
Kate
Tremendously school spirited and rarely not smiling, Kate's big brown eyes and nose-that-wrinkled-when-she-laughed was contagious to us all. When not leading cheers or dispensing band-aids in the nurse's office, she could be found excitedly watching a basketball scrimmage or maybe playing foot ball in Roberts Park . . .

James Edward Fraser
Jim
With an open attitude towards school life, Jim struggled with the rest of the class, looking forward to June. Ready to help everyone Jim could usually be found guarding the Library doors.

Eric Floyd Fox
Eric
G.M.'s own Leonard Bernstein, Ricky is forever destined a 3rd clarinet. Rather tall for his height, and small for his size, his cafeteria antics were surpassed by none.

Richard Gerow Fredenburg Dick
As a member of the G.M. band and President of the choir, Dick's musical abilities greatly aided the school. An active member of the Key Club, Dick was always helping on a service drive.

James Garrett
Jimmy
Jim, the giant killer quickly became one of the "crew". Although most of his time was spent riding around in his little white T.R., he still managed to lounge in algebra, charm Mrs. Krum, or even send lovely red roses.

Cecilia Frances Gibbons
Cecil
Cecil, our "Wittiest Girl", had the ability to make ANYTHING funny. Besides her wild week-ends, she was a loyal friend, and a loyal Simaritan—without her our class could have never come together. She will probably be most remembered though, as "Chèr" in the Tonight Show, and as that "something BIG" in the S.C.A.

Paul Frederick Gibson
Paul
The only male member of Future Teachers, Paul took the teasing he got about it with the best of humor. Managing baseball, a monogrammer, and frequently seen in a VW bus with the other two musketeers, he was well-liked by everyone.

Robert William Gray
Bob

Always searching for Packard parts, Bob is an eccentric mechanic. As an active member of the Senior class, he willingly singed his fingers on the lights while working towards one of our many productions. Sometimes late . . . but always there . . . Bob is a mild mannered and always cheerful Simaritan.

Christy Hampton Guy
Christy

G.M.'s own "Miss Kentucky" . . . her southern "y'alls" . . . basketball talents and a glowing suntan in the middle of winter, plus her fog horn type cough makes Christy irreplaceable. May she always remember snowy afternoons, and madred-Karman Ghias.

Philip George Hannum
Phil

Would you believe this boy could drive the faculty into a complete frenzy? "Crazy Legs" Hannum was out of sight on the football or soccer field before the enemy could blink an eye. Always ready with a quick smile or friendly handshake, Phil was the greatest of pals.

John Lee Hare
John

John's tenor voice has added greatly to the choir's quality, and to the "Wild's" sound. An avid member of the Redskin's band . . . John's "English" accent could often be heard in the halls.

Pamela Jo Harlow
Pam

Looking for her Stewardess "wings", Pam is best remembered for her role as Mrs. Stacy in the production of "If a Man Answers", for her irrepressible smile, and her inventiveness in trying to find the similarities between a typewriter and a seagull.

Karen Lea Herndon
Karen

As President of our Sophomore Class, Karen held us together until we learned to accept responsibility as Juniors. Although always ready to hand tape to someone, or make posters, the "Jolly Green Giant" was a sure threat to any opposition in basketball. Always laughing, loving, and being a wonderful friend . . . Karen.

Bradley Alden Hertz Brad

The owner of Hertz's mountain, Brad and his little black Volkswagen were always going hunting or fishing. A member of the football team for two years, and owner of the "half-moon smile", he had his own unique style of riding ponies and entertaining his friends.

Deborah Kay Higdon
Debi

Whether working in the office or selling doughnuts, Debi added a touch of sophistication to the Senior Class. She will be remembered for her lovely clothes, lovely eyes, and her constant fear of rainy days.

Diane Hillman
Diane
Our Most Athletic Senior girl . . . Diane could usually be found in or around the gym, carrying little notes to and from the office, or running gym classes. Hard working, and always solving Trig problems . . . Diane.

Charles Hooper
Charlie
G.M.'s very own Rock Hudson in "It Happens Every Summer", most of Charlie's time was spent on the stage. However, he still enjoys lunch-with-the-bunch on the back hill.

Gregory Gene Howard
Greg
Always working on a car, most of Greg's time was spent making mufflers from soup cans and road-testing his "inventions". Even though he DID usually come to school, he rarely made enough noise to be known.

Donald Hunt
Don
Probably the quietest Senior (and that is saying a lot), Don's days were spent far from G.M. . . . wonder what he did!

Allan Timothy Hurt
Allan

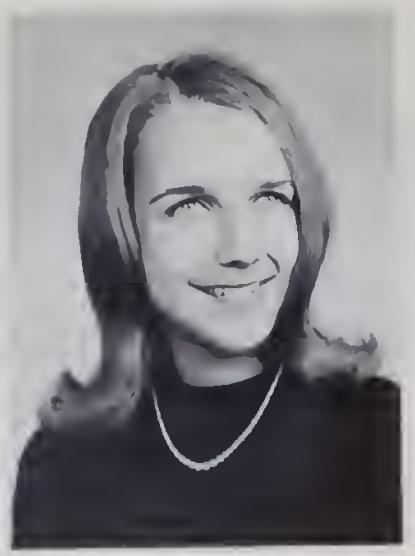
Allan, with his James Brown yell and various other battle cries, is usually two steps ahead of everyone else and faintly superior about it. His interests are photography, dramatics, poetry, and the good life on both sides of the river.

Patricia Ann Huston
Pat

A member of the Try-Hi-Y, Pat spent much of her time behind a sewing machine. Another crew cut hater, and a terror on the basketball court, she was friendly, and the hostess of quite a few great parties.

Edward Thomas Ismay
Ted

"Hey, Surf's up!" Wind up G.M.'s own bit of O.C. and he walks, writes, and dreams surf. Since he left the beach and came to G.M., Ted has pitched in wholeheartedly everywhere there's a job. With his never-failing friendliness, Ted has become one of our most sociable SIMARITANS.



Mary Susan Jones
Susy

In the library there is a table that bears the invisible inscription—"This table is reserved for Susy J.", and so it seems, for she can always be found there either trying to figure out an algebra problem or reading the latest issue of "Mademoiselle". Pretty clothes . . . pretty smile . . . happy laughter . . . Susy.

Vicki Lynn Jones
Vicki

G.M.'s answer to Broadway, Vicki always appears clothed in the latest fashions, generally in shades of lavender. Georgia's "Mary Mod" will carry to the theater memories of Mount Daniel, Yorktown, and her flair for the dramatic in all walks of life.

Patricia Elizabeth Judson
Pat

Always bouncing from room to room, usually with her shoes off, Pat pops up when least expected. Her chirping soprano voice at 10:00, and varied dramatic roles will long be remembered by all.

Robert Grillith Kennedy
Robert

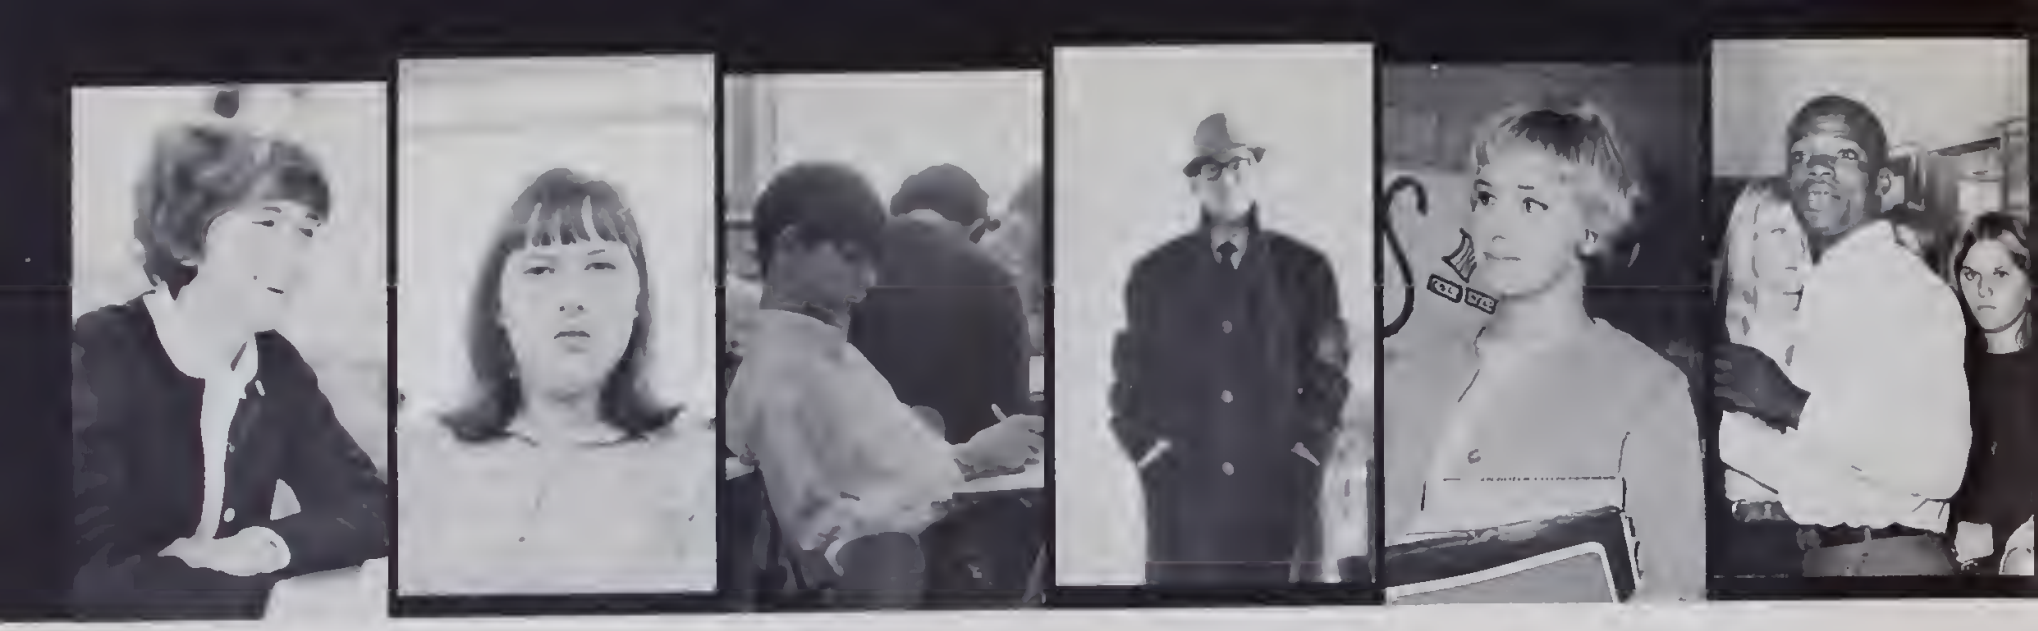
Our Senior court bench was kept in top condition because of Robert's woodworking talents. When demonstrating his talents on the football field, the "Red Brick" was a "Stone Wall." How about buying lifty million, A-1, completely rehauled, worked-over, jalopies?

Ann Marguerite Kenyon
Ann

Ann was always ready to make new friends and to help those in need. Her charming personality and bright smile enlivened any gathering. Often playing "ring, ring, who's got the ring", Ann's future plans are all any girl could ask for.

Charles Stephen Kaplan
Charles

Tall, red-headed, and a pitcher for the ball-slugging Mustangs, Steve was there when they took the District Championship in '66. Whether struggling through typing or wandering from class to class, he managed to make it through the year.



Laura Ruth Killam
Laura

Coming from Germany, Laura has contributed her wonderful artistic ability to the Class of '67. Responsible for many of the posters which adorn the halls, she will be most remembered for her "beautiful black eyes."

Jeanie Ann Koffman
Jennie

Greeting you with a smile, Jennie was always ready to strike up a conversation. She will well remember, as the rest of us, those frustrating moments in Mr. Rockwell's Trig class.

Jeffery Lee Kohn
Jeff

Besides having the distinction of being the last Senior to have his write-up done, Jeff was usually talking about cars . . . but he still found time to pick out many flowered shirts.

Bruce Edward Kuritzky
Bruce

Bruce, with his little beanie and "Redskins" megaphone, thundered out cheers for the Mustangs . . . when he wasn't directing the Pep Band or being Drum Major. Master of the pen and tongue, Bruce will be remembered for his hearse and his greatest speech . . . "How to Embalm in 10 Easy Lessons".

Dana Lindsey Dana
G.M.'s "innocent" Miss Lindsey often displayed her talents in Home Economics with her sewing and in Choir with her beautiful voice. Dana was always on the tease, always on the go, always waiting for a big byrd to return home.

Gregory Lindsey
Greg
Robey is that boy with the wide grin, wave of the hand, and the glistening eyes that always made him look as if he had been up to something. Greg is unequaled in athletic ability . . . maybe someday he will be in art, too!

Daniel Locklar
Frankie
Despite his somewhat wild nature, Frankie attended school occasionally. Whether breezing through the halls, or making boxes in shop, he is undaunted by the 7 hour a day confinement.

Kathryn Elizabeth Lavender
Kathy
G.M.'s own "Dear Abby" will never be forgotten for her own advice and long dissertation on everything under the sun. Kathy was always dreaming of riding . . . but when not able to, she could be found cheering the Baby Mustangs to victory. She captured the heart of G.M.'ers with her frequent bursts of laughter and true friendship.

Carl Lindsey
Carl
Life is fun for Carl. For him nothing can take the warm Summer Sun away. With high hopes and goals to attain Carl became "just outstanding". He loved a joke; loved to play them on Mr. Dietz and Mr. Sommer, loved to please the fans and they always were.

Lee Lucket
Lee
Newly arrived from California, Lee made friends quickly and easily became part of G.M. Whether sleeping in closets, laughing and blinking her "teensy eyes", or giving parties . . . She added much to the "gay life" of the Gulch.

Robert McCabe
Bob
Bubble, as he is known hy his friends, is President of the tromping Hi-Y . . . and chief doughnut eater at G.M. Often seen driving around in his two beautiful cars, he was a key man in the Mustang football defense.

Jeanne Louise Macomber Jeanne
The girl with the big brown eyes, quiet Jeanne never had much to say. As a member of the Tri-Hi-Y she spent time in school service . . . when she wasn't figuring out her Algebra.

Rosa Martin
Rose
Whether bouncing around the halls of G.M., keeping track of her many sisters, calling Pep Club meetings, or going to Tops . . . Rose's red curls, abundant freckles, and unbelievable giggle could confuse even the calmest of us. She was always having EVERY-ONE over, but could usually he found taking thousands of club pictures—

Linda Leigh Matthes
Linda

"Stamp out hand-holders campaign" . . . G.M.'s conservative individualist, Linda has added a lot to the Class of '67. Her subtle wit and artistic abilities made decorating for the dances seem more fun than work . . . and few will forget the great "Sweetheart Tree."

Patricia Anne McCook
Patti

The quiet silver-blond that always has a smile for everyone . . . you could always tell when Patti was coming—by the roar of her cutlass "special" convertible. If you ever needed a band aid . . . there was Patti.

Diane P. McMillen
Diane

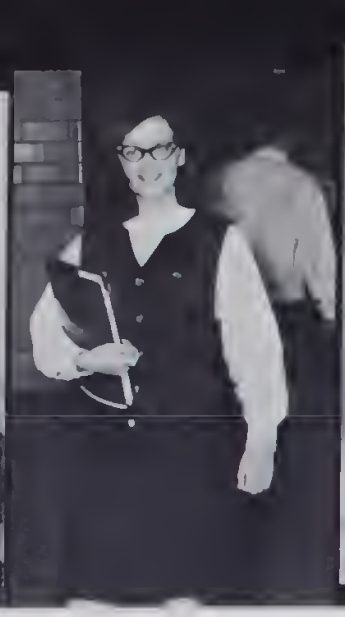
As Vice-President of the Spanish Club, Señorita McMillen was usually making tortillas, translating El Cid, or planning la fiesta para sabado con Dorotea. An excellent student, her name was almost always seen on the Honor Roll.

Jane Carol Merkle
Jane

Jane will always be associated with yellow and orange, daisies, sunshine, and all happy things. With a distinctive laugh that could be heard echoing gayly through the halls, from art class to Mr. Dietz's English . . . she brightened many a dark day at G.M.

Susan L. McGillivray
Susie

Rene, as she is known by her friends, spent much of her time with the Dramatics Club. When not mixing the punch or guarding the bowl, she could be found in Mrs. Hardy's room making clothes . . . or maybe working on "The Effect of Light on Earthworms" in the Biology lab.



Charles Eric Modine
Eric

Whether hunting in the wild woods of his farm or parting the snow with his skis, Eric was naturally at home. The almost serious boy with an almost serious attitude captured the heart of all he knew. Working hard for his class of '67, Eric was always there, especially when someone was needed.

Beverly June Moore
Beverly

A lover of horses . . . an excellent pianist and accompanist for the choirs . . . a consistent patron of Lee Highway Tops . . . driver of the "green boat" . . . Beverly was a "quiet" member of the class of '67 during school, but once outside . . . you'd better watch out.

Sharon Suzanne Moran
Sheri

With her infinite energy, Sheri could always be seen busily performing tasks both big and small about the school—taking down Christmas trees, putting up bulletin boards, or frantically searching for paraphernalia for her Science Fair projects. She will be remembered for her devoted service and sweet disposition.

Patricia Murphy
Pat

Long blonde hair, big blue eyes, and a kooky sense of humor . . . she was the proud owner of the fastest typewriter in the East,—when she remembered to put the paper in. Pat kept everyone in stitches with her humorous antics.

Mark Oltman

Mark brings a touch of the out-of-doors life indoors. His fascinating tales of the woods could chill a polar bear. Never could we forget his "strange" little car—a miniature station-wagon. Mark's down-to-earth friendliness warmed us all.

Hugh John O'Neale

John

John always smiled and with genuine interest listened to what you said. If prodded he could tell you just one of his adventure stories. He was quite often working on a car or creating in Industrial Arts.

Peter Mark Overby

Peter

It was a wonder that Peter found his way about school under all that hair. Patiently awaiting the end of "her" classes, Peter would spend his time thumping out tunes on the trash cans and writing the melodies on the Senior Bench

Howard Theodore Newland

Ted

When he was not zooming along on his Yamaha, Ted usually was to be found outsmarting computers and befuddling geniuses. He will be remembered also for his habit of buying more and more old cars and for his "basso profundo" bass voice.

Robert Heiler Nugent, Jr.

BoBo

Coming from O'Connell as a Junior, BoBo's rare smile always made you happy. As a member of the football and basketball teams, he contributed to the Mustang's victories . . . He was the school hero when he made the shot that beat Albermarle on that wonderful night in December.

Patricia Ann Painter
Patsy
Small, gay, and full of witty remarks, Patsy is the greatest of girls. Spending most of this year learning to cook and sew . . . her future plans, too, are all that any girl could wish for.

Carl Putnam Parker
Carl
One of the most intelligent members of the class, Put was usually studying or running around with David. Though not known by most, he was an excellent actor (even if his name wasn't on the program) . . . Remember Paul Sycamore with the fire extinguisher in "You Can't Take It With You?"

William Basil Parnell
Bill
Bill is to be commended for his loyalty even though he didn't believe in school . . . he attended classes all year. His rendition of "Bill Grogan's Goat" was something few of us will forget.

Sheryl Lynn Parrish
Sherry
Sher, as she is known by her friends, is certainly an individual. Her long brown hair, eyelashes, and low voice are much a part of her personality, and all of us are glad that she recovered from her accident to finish her Senior year as a Simaritan.

David Paynter
David

Quiet, studious, and usually with Carl, David was deservingly voted "Most Scholarly." Typically Bostonish, he was Señora Costa's estudiante muy bien, and even Mrs. Rooney let him roam free in the lab.

Douglas Paynter
Doug

Alias "Dead eye" frnm half court. An easy going, happy-go-lucky Senior, Doug can be remembered for his incessant smile, his ability to get along well with people, and most of all his U. Va.

Alice Marie Pierce
Alice

As co-editor of the Lasso and Recording Secretary of the S.C.A., Alice was always typing, pasting, proofreading, or collecting 50 cent installments. Although everyone always thought of her as quiet, we all got a surprise in S.C.A meetings.

Janice Marie Portch Janice

Always willing to lend a hand, Janice was usually found in the nurses office with Mrs. Scott. When not at school she was at Charles of the Ritz creating new hairdos, she was driving around town in her very own Ford

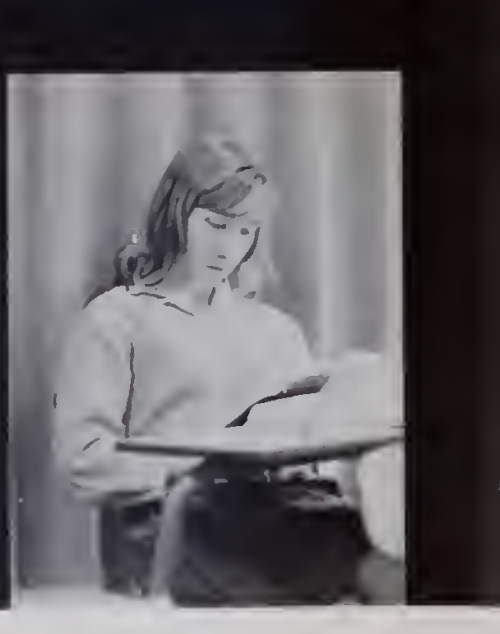
Joseph Scott Perry
Joe

Usually working on his hot rod or running movies for teachers, Joe was slightly mechanical, and willing to lend a hand when needed . . . some say he intends to take a trip to sunny Florida after graduation.

Walter Porzel
Walter
A quiet boy, Walter is not known hy many. This year being his first taste of the wild G.M. jungle, "Moglie" fought his way through the year with the rest of us. Usually seen trudging across the lawn, he'll always take time to talk to those who know him and is daring enough to match wits with Mr. McBlair and his puns.

Loretta Jean Potter
Loretta
Poised and refined, a very quiet young lady, Loretta has worked very hard for George Mason without much recognition. Usually found filing music or selling orchids, Loretta was a busy girl.

Stephen Burl Purvis
Steve
Better known as Rufus, Steve has proved a valuable member of the baseball and basketball teams, although rebounds proved to be his downfall. Known for his quick wit, orange pants, and a white Fiat with tricky front seats, Steve is a true individual.



Margaret Ann Quam
Margaret
Regal. One word for G.M.'s radiant "Camelot Queen." Margaret served in Keyettes and enthusiastically led the crowd in many cheers all throughout high school. Her warm smile, never at a wrong moment, was always welcome.

Ronald Stephenson Ray
Ronny

A big grin, a sweet hello and good "listening" ability made Ronny a friend to everyone. This Georgian guitar-picker made his presence known at all Senior Class projects . . . if he wasn't putting decorations up he was tearing them down.

Anne Scott Rhoads
Anne

Anne is the thin, feminine girl you always saw in the hall putting up bulletin boards. Besides owning 772 different pairs of textured stockings (with earrings to match) she ran a taxi service in her little yellow VW. Talented . . . always happy . . . friendly . . . Anne.

Ruth Frances Robey
Ruth

A member of the Tri Hi-Y and the '67 girls basketball team, Ruth was the quiet type. Besides raising bees for a hobby, she loved to type and could usually be found in or around room 235.

Duncan Paul Rose, Jr.
Duncan

A little quiet . . . a little shy . . . a loud cycle, and small, cute car . . . out at one for "work" . . . creates in shop . . . likes hunting but loves Maryland.

David Blair Sandidge
David

One of the more friendly guys at G.M., David has a smile for all and is considered quiet, only to the people who don't know him. As a football contributor and organizer of "The Crew," David can be remembered for his impeccable dress and carefree attitude.

Daniel Sandford
Danny

Just off the boat from India, Danny finds G.M. a little more convenient in all respects. Happy to join the band again, Danny makes time to play basketball with Barry and tries to find time for Physies.

Preston Frazer Rose Preston

A friendly and exeiting strawberry blond. "Rosey" contributed much to the World of Sports as co-captain of the football team and 13' vaulter. Who will ever forget Preston's bubble gum, bubble gum, mugs full of bubble gum?

Jennifer Dale Ross
Jeff

Her tiny Honda . . . her love of dogs . . . her funny laugh . . . her quick wit . . . her cooking (?) talent . . . all this made Jennifer what she is, "Jeff".

Stephanie Savage
Steph

Coming to G.M. in the 10th grade from Russia, Steph quickly gave us a slightly new way of life. Without her sense of humor, Saturday night antics, and lunch room surprises, the Gulch would have known many dull days.

John Alvin Schafer
Buddy

For Buddy, life is all fun and games. He always showed up anywhere, for anything. Basketball he loved; the many thousands of times he played at Lincoln Park prove it.

William Lee Schwenn
Skip

As President of the Key Club, Skip was forever working . . . whether washing cars, tracking down Santa Clans suits, or organizing the "weekly drive". Often seen in his little red car, his bubbling personality made him everyone's little brother.

Richard D. Sebastian
Ricky

G.M.'s answer to the Redskin Band . . . baritone sax par excellence. Rick is to be remembered for his supervision in getting the Senior Christmas tree . . . and leaving the tools behind.

Sally Ann Shaw
Sally

'67's happy-go-lucky blonde. As officer of three clubs and decorations chairman of "Sleighride to the Stars" and "Autumn in Camelot" she was justly chosen as Most Outstanding Contributor. This drummer-lover at heart will always remember G.M. for the "many wild times."

Corey Goodwin Shea
Corey

Corey's power on the field was something to uphold, his talent on the court held you in awe. Ready to listen, ready to laugh, ready to suggest, "Horse" was everyone's friend.

Melanie Faith Sherman
Monnie

Despite influence from G.M., Monnie has managed to retain the free spirit she has. Her infamous sayings and remarks have enlivened numerous dull days and her sensitivity has surprised many of us.

Kathleen Riley Sides
Jickie

"I'd rather be dead than red-in-the-head . . ." an avid track fan . . . rain, sleet, or snow can't keep Jickie away from the track during a meet. From making a beautiful formal to working on her MUSTANG, she was always busy.

Joseph Erwin Singleton Win
A member of G.M.'s famous Electras, "Pudgy" will be remembered for his "I Got Tennis Shoes" original, his taste in clothes, and quick change cars, with telephones. Though kept busy, Win still managed to explore back roads in N. Virginia.

Dorothy Jean Smith
Dorothy
Whether running through her basketball opponents' legs, or running around with Thelma, Dorothy always surprised everyone with her quick smile. Although height she doesn't have, she comes well-equipped with sincerity and friendliness.

George Thomas Smith, Jr.
Tommy
A good friend of Mr. M. . , full of wit and comic situations, Tom could usually be found with a camera in one hand and developer in the other, heading for the dark room. Trying to "put the world over a barrel", Tom was out to help his neighbor at any cost.

Daphne Lorraine Snider
Daphne
Slaving over a hot typewriter, Daphne could be seen glancing out the window at her friends. Striving for the fun in life, she could be seen outside herself, playing those Senior games.

Lois Carmen Snowden
Lois
Leader of a little band of baton twirlers, Lois was justly proud of her hard earned and honored position. Quiet in class and seemingly shy, she would enter into conversation once out of the class room. Lois looked forward to June.

Kenneth M. Stoken
Ken
Quiet but always thinking, Ken endures G.M. with an evil eye and a quick wit . . . his frequent discussions with Mr. M. always leave us wondering who's winning—the tortoise or the hair . . . Driving a '61 Ford Station Wagon that owns more of his time than he does . . . one of the true philosophers of our generation.

Beverly Dianne Street
Beverly
Tall and shy, Bev usually left for work at 1:00 . . . so few of us got to know her. When she didn't . . . there were always 10 people in the front seat of her little Corvair . . . soprano in the choir . . . friendly . . . Bev.

Lawrence David Stuebing Larry
Always grinning and entertaining everyone with his remarks, Larry was Mrs. Rooney's favorite Chem. Study student. He painted many sets and pulled many curtains for Dramatic productions . . . but still managed to steal the grape punch back stage.

Susan Lee Swarthout
Susan
Susan's greatest image is that of Tempo's tragic editor, constantly in search of a printer. She spends a lot of time with the Keyettes and going to A.F.S. meetings with Alison . . . but will probably be remembered forever for her career role as "Debby-Do-Right".

Travis Oliver Tabor, IV
Travis
Capture Travis for one magical moment and he will reveal his carefree attitude, whether driving in his blue Corvair or telling of his many neat nights. He proves the well-known saying "blondes have more fun."

Mary Maurice Tackney
Mimzy
One of the Lee Highway Tops Trio, Mimzy, with her banana feet, unique dancing, and "Johnny Rogue", could be seen or heard EVERYWHERE. Whether leading cheers or directing one of the best Variety Shows of all times, she was a dependable leader, a loyal friend, and a lady.

Steve Thompson
Steve
Fun loving, reckless, outspoken, friendly . . . Steve has made a great hit since his coming to G.M. at the beginning of this year. Ready to help when someone asked, Steve is a thoughtful person with a high intellegence. And who can ever forget his struggle through Mr. Rockwell's class.

Mark Henry Thur
Mark
If you're lucky, Mark might give you a ride on his Honda or in his Mustang. He talks a lot about France, drinking milk, and his memorable party to anybody who's in earshot. He will be remembered for being sooo agreeable, except in the early morning arguments with the mighty A.M.R.

Elizabeth Ann Thompson
Betsy
Usually walking slowly down the halls, and always grading typing papers Betsy was a good friend (especially to those in personal typing). We will all remember her lovely clothes and glowing smile.

Myra Tillman
Myra
Our bit of Germany, Myra added a pretty face, a wild personality, and a cool sense of humor to George Mason. Quickly making new friends, she often talks of returning to the "old country" soon after graduation.

Barbara Ellen Tresidder
Barbara
Coming from South Africa, Barbara as added a "completely unique experience" to G.M. Making many new friends, and attending a few of our dances, Barbara has quickly blended in with the students.

Frank Hamilton Warner
Frank
An officer of the Hi-Y, Frank serves the school and class with loyalty. Playing in his wood working class, when his arm is not in a cast, Frank is jovial and ready for a laugh at any time.

John Philip Wilmont
Phil
One of the last Morris Minor Men, Phil drew attention wherever he went. He could usually be found in the library lobby arguing with "Fat Dan" on the better performance of a Morris as compared to a "VW."

Beverly Russell Warner
Beaver
If you ever had a hard day, Beaver's warm smile was always there to snap you out of it. Her sincerity and happy-go-lucky personality have made her "everyone's best friend".

Catherine Lee Wilson
Cathy

Cathy is always willing to help in any way possible. Very accommodating, she possesses a sincere personality. She can be found in Senior Sewing, if not talking to her friends in the library.

Clifford Alan Wilson
Cliff

Cliff can often be found slaving over a draft board, making sure his "jig-saw-puzzle" fit together. With a joke for everyone, he has maintained the unique personality that everyone likes him for.

David Andrew Yarnell
David

David is known especially for his exquisite creative ability, but someday he's promised to paint people too. His easy go lucky attitude lets you know nothing bothers him. A friendly laugh makes him well liked by all.

Linda Yelverton
Linda

Barely seen above the wheel of her baby blue Mustang, Linda never left the Senior Parking Lot with less than half of G.M. in the back seat. She's little . . . but so is a stick of dynamite!

Gloria Jean Wilson
Tue

Tue, with her bubbling personality and hilarious jokes, often slaves over a hot sewing machine to turn out beautiful clothes. Poised and picture perfect, G.M.'s National Airlines Girl is sure to have success.

Seventh Grade . . . searching for identity (and your classes) . . . "Miss Kitty" and "Peaches" . . . visiting the Art Gallery for the seventh time . . . a happy year we spent adjusting to a wonderful new way of life . . .

A year later we found that G.M. can be work, too . . . choosing friends . . . our "Snow Queen" dance . . . and preparing for the challenges of Senior High . . .

At last! We're in high school . . . more respect and more work . . . cheering our own J.V. . . . having our own court attendants and no more sneaking into night dances . . . and a class dance that almost worked . . .

Sophomores now, but not quite a class yet . . . nature walks with Mrs. Ropshaw . . . Mr. Worley . . . and our last year of gym . . .

Our Junior year brought new and endless challenges . . . organizing our own formal dances and defeating the Senior girls in basketball . . . long hours of work and frustration result in "The Tonight Show", a resounding success . . . and the final achievement—"Sayonara" . . .

The summer sped by and (gasp!) we were Seniors . . . a lack of privileges was overshadowed by a no-bell system that created a casual, relaxed atmosphere in which to enjoy our last year at G.M. . . . happy hours spent playing shoe-ball outside or just gabbing with a hall monitor . . . busy hours spent on term papers and college applications . . . and the days dragged into weeks and the weeks into months and all too soon, on a hot June night, it all became a memory . . . but when we leave we take with us a little piece of the sweat, the tears, the cheers, and the Spirit that is G.M. . . . and we leave behind a feeling of unity and pride that will echo through the halls of G.M. long after people have forgotten what SIMARITANS really means . . .

Catwoman casts her spell on the "Boy Wonder".

Inspired Seniors find Gulliver's Travels stimulating.

Larry reads up on the latest college catalogues.

Terry silently plans next party.

Simaritans say farewell.

. . . and a bright shining moment that will never come again.

HOMECOMING 1966

The spirit of Homecoming 1966
didn't wait for the weekend—
it started with Monogram Club posters,
the spirit stick,
the red strings,
Phil's dummy and
as Friday approached,
the wood piled higher,
and higher
to be burned in a circle of noisy cheers
and shimmering faces.
Saturday finds a small band of Seniors working busily
to transform the Cafeteria into the magic world of Camelot.
The colorful and victorious game was overshadowed
by a stunning court
led by Margaret Quam presented during the halftime festivities
and as the memorable afternoon draws to a close thoughts turn to a place called Camelot.

The court is seated for the last half of the game after being presented to the crowd.

Captain Carl presents Margaret with the team football.

Students and alumni together again for homecoming.

Bruce and his BARRbarians entertain at halftime.

MARGARET AND HER COURT

Miss Margaret Quam, Queen, is crowned.

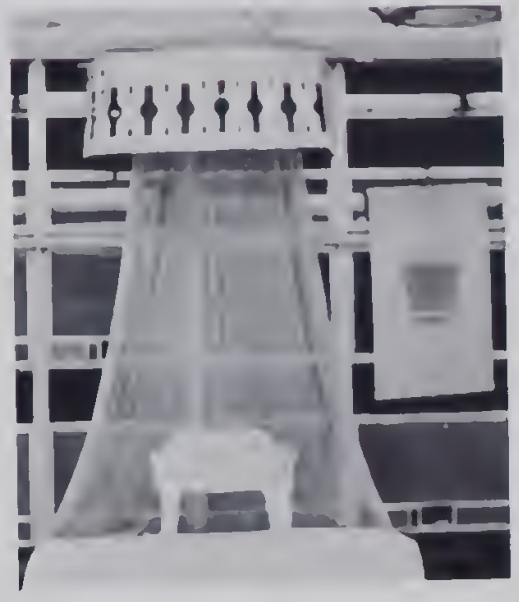
THE QUEEN'S DANCE . . . AND AUTUMN IN CAMELOT BEGINS TO FADE

Margaret and Preston lead the queen's dance.

"Preston, I'm allergic to roses."



The decorations were finally in place and all was ready, as the doors opened up for Autumn in Camelot. Time flew and, as the Prophets played Lara's Theme from Dr. Zhivago, Margaret lead in a beautiful court. And soon it was time to leave for town, as the shields, the cheesecloth, and the streamers came down. But it was a shining moment, such a brief moment, to be remembered for many a year.

SPAGHETTI DINNER

"No, we can't serve drinks with dinner . . . but for a small fee I'm sure something can be arranged."

The whole things started at 11:00 A.M. with Harriett, Steve Howell, and Mary MeCarthy making somewhere in the vicinity of 1,000 meatballs, while the fathers of the last two eoncoeted the sauee. Various people drifted in from one o'cloek on, and somehow, due to Karen Lueas's effieieney, Mrs. Nethers' ealm disposition, and several Freshman and Sophomore girls, the tables were set and the salad made. As the football game ended, Forrest Hunter was still frantically pushing tables, while Mrs. Hanley who had spent the afternoon e r a m m i n g eandles into Miehelob bottles, yelled "loek the doors!" Finally at 4:30, as promised on the tiekets the first people were let in.

For the next four hours comments sueh as "I need another meatball, quiek!" Or "who ARE all these people, anyway," were heard from the Juniors turned waiters for a day . . . and at 9:30, when the last noodle was gone and last eandle blown out, everybody stopped to eat the eake. It had been a great Junior suecess . . . but is it any wonder they hate spaghetti?

Mr. McCarthy—Head Chef

"Yes, I just love spaghetti!"

The finished product.

Sandy Jensen—Smiling Junior Class Chef.

IT HAPPENS EVERY SUMMER

Oltman and Kuritzky steal the show with "Guts"

Well, you don't look so bad yourself

One more pound of cold cream and no one will ever know

It happened at Mount Daniel but almost didn't. We had no place to practice, no time to rehearse, and suddenly the last week was here—with long, long dress rehearsals, Cecil, a cold-cream job on the floor, and "we just love you at Northwestern!" a hundred more times.

The first night went smoothly, with the Subdeb editors of Debutante falling madly in love with Pudgy Roulettes, the Count, Mr. Kenyon, Tod Colbert, and finally Custis Gaylord Oglethorpe. To everyones surprise, Susan Swarthout sadly sighed so long to her job for . . . a husband?!! Gilfords was crowded afterwards.

The second night the janitors didn't come to open up and Lawsy! Annabel lost her voice. Mary Oltman put both Bruce Kuritzky and the audience in hysterics with her portrayal of her novel "Guts" while Chris Larson downed nine cups of his mysterious punch. Everyone heard "I got tennis shoes" and "Who said New York Ain't Romantic?" one last time and it was finally the hour for the cast party.

Meredy's was crowded, and several dozen, many-hued faces automatically rattled off lines and said "I can't believe it's all over" like they do every time. But it will never happen again quite the same as It Happens Every Summer!

JUNIORS

SIMARITANS SINK DISCIPLES

But Juniors ARE the best!

Moose help!—I'm surrounded!

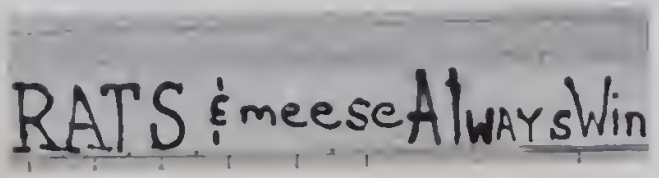
Senior sign after the attack of J.V. cheerleaders.

. . . and a quick reverse.

It was February 21. The signs were up . . . the cheerleaders were putting on the finishing touches of make-up . . . long afternoons in the gym faded out as a spirited Junior team faced the unholy height of the Senior Class amazons . . . wild passes . . . lost balls . . . flailing arms . . . and long legs. An impenetratable zone defense and a determined Disciple offense . . . set shots that wouldn't go in . . . a comedy of errors completed when Harriett and Sherri shot for the other's basket . . .

Finally, the Senior bell rings . . . a coach goes to the showers, . . . and Mary Doyle's bid for stardom is complete.

. . . the Junior team motto.



FACULTY ROUTS KEY CLUB

Faculty sirens pause briefly from cheering??!! to pose for Key Club photographer.

Farris shoots for two.

Despite the effort by "Greasy" and the gang, the "Muncie Marauder," the "Big Bear" and the faculty routed a strong Key Club team, while cheered on by the FACULTY friends . . . even Miss Vance helped . . . with G.M.'s first dunked foul shot.

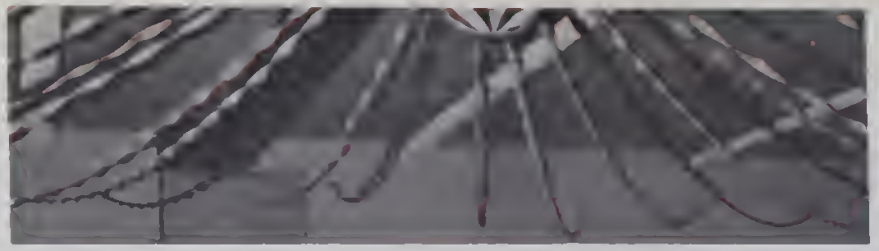
At three o'clock on Friday (before we found the janitor), it was four classrooms. Then the Juniors came and marked globes, moved maps, and carried tables . . . We put ivy up . . . changed our minds . . . and put it back up again . . . 60 rolls of crepe paper were hung . . . (where is the masking tape?) 1800 paper roses were taped to the wall . . . gumdrop tree centerpieces made for the tables . . . and everyone tried to get the heart straight.

Merit Scholarships tomorrow morning. Where did Ann and Sandy get all these ideas? . . . 500 hamburgers from Hot Shoppes Jr . . . and community cokes . . . (By the way, where are the cokes for tonight?) . . . everybody comes to help . . . and at almost six we left . . . tired, dirty, and excited . . . some to return at 8:30 to the garden we had created.

That night . . . through the looking glass and into the Secret Garden of Hearts that no longer even resembled the Team Teaching room . . . (the Junior Class did that?) . . . a magical garden of sweetheart trees and ivy, of paper hearts and Roses . . . a wonderland where the Queen and her lovely court reigned over a laughing, dancing crowd that wished the fantasy would never end . . . called by those that know the most beautiful dance of them all.



Noralyn crowns Rose 1967 Queen of Hearts as Sherri looks on.

And a special Junior thanks to Meeses Florist . . .

SPRING 1-ACT PLAY FESTIVAL

Cecil Gibbons, Director, and Mrs. Hull confer.

Afternoon rehearsals in the team-teaching room, building the stage every day, wearing beards, and powdered hair in school, and making rocks and tombstones—this all came with spring.

Then opening night—no lights 'till Tom Smith appeared. Three hours to go and the flats don't fit. Suddenly everybody has beards and wrinkles and missing teeth. Second night and Little Davy got the black dot, Granny snapped her gum again and Gabriel blew his horn. One last scream by Vicki, a gasp of horror, applause and the bearded company dispersed for a memorable evening.

Then a Sunday spent rebuilding the school, taking time out only to sign the flats and observe the first anniversary of the Greasy MacDonald's Pickle. Finally everything but the graveyard was packed away until the 3rd annual festival . . . next year.

With three fine coaches to lead the team, Varsity Football had a successful season with 5 wins and 3 losses. Under the lights at Loudoun Valley, the team saw their first victory with a 41-0 win. Unable to withstand James Wood the following week, Big Red came home to defeat Handley 14-7 on "one rainy day." Suffering defeat at the hands of Clarke County, the team traveled to Herndon to lose only by one point—13-12. We stampeded back with a 49-0 Homecoming victory over Fauquier. In a non-league contest, the Mustangs smashed the James Monroe Eagles 26-16. G.M. closed out the season by upending Loudoun County 14-7.

J. V. FOOTBALL

Left to Right. First Row—Bill Martin, Ed Hannum, John Velasquez, David Hooper, Mike Yelverton. Second Row—Wendell Byrd, Tom Dill, Danny Nugent, Stuart Savage, Chris Brown, Joe Earman, James Davis. Third Row—Coach Gambill, Bill Marsh, Scott Cline, Mike Lacy, Mike Sandidge, Mike Tedder, Mark Spinelli, Bill Brooks.

J.V. football took on two teams and broke their long time losing streak. Their first meeting was with Loudoun Valley. They defeated Valley 14-0 and went on to a 14-2 victory over Fauquier County. No other games were played this season because of a lack of league teams.

MUSTANGS ON THE MOVE

Cha-cha. Carl, cha-cha. HEY!

Hertz hauls one in.

Phil Hannum kicks it into passing gear.

Upsy-daisy!

All right you guys, cut that out!

AND AT STATE

Last minute instructions for "the big one."

Three big ones—Wakefield, STATE, and District.

. . . as it got longer step by step. Bill Davies and Jim Willcock placed second and third for the team.

Under the coaching of Mr. Geoghegan, the George Mason Cross Country team faced fifty-six teams and went through their season undefeated. On the Reston Course the G. M. Roadrunners easily took first at District. The following weekend, seven boys took a worthwhile trip to Williamsburg. In the 1-B State Championship meet the team scored a low seventy-two points; all five scorers were under twentieth place. In the ceremony that followed G.M.'s team members were crowned "1966 Champs."

Left to Right. Standing—Lance McCracken, Robert Waring, Carl Parker, Clay Waldon, John Hundley, Mark Tosti, Wayne Coates, Wayne Locke, Rick Buschow, David Blake, David Hunter, David Sanford, Brian Gendreau, Ben Deans, Robbie Werth, Mark Greenberg, Mr. Harold, Coach. Kneeling—John Fisher, Bob Lundy, Andy Dupont, ViJay Vatsia, Bob Allder, Billy Cooksey, Phil Hannum, Preston Rose, Glen Kight, Frank Hammerle, Mark Greenberg.

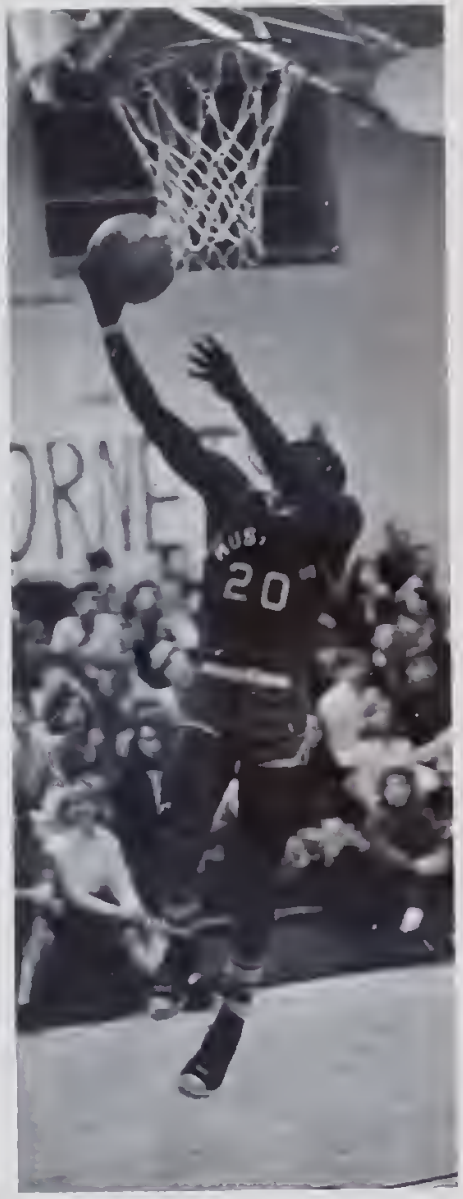
BASKETBALL 1967

The Varsity team was faced with the problem of defending their District 1-B Championship this year. The season's first high point occurred when they successfully downed Albemarle in their initial encounter. Although the team was fast-moving, and persevering, the lack of significant height and numerous injuries may account for the frustrating record. It was a season of last minute decisions and nerve-wracking close scores. The Mustangs scrapped all the way and upset second ranked James Wood in a late season game. In the final tilt they fell to then "number one" Handley, 45-46, and dampened a spirited student body.

To the disappointment of G.M. partisans, the roundballers lost their tournament game with an unwarranted defeat at Loudoun County's hands.

"Rufus" up for the rebound.

"Robey" looks for a little help.

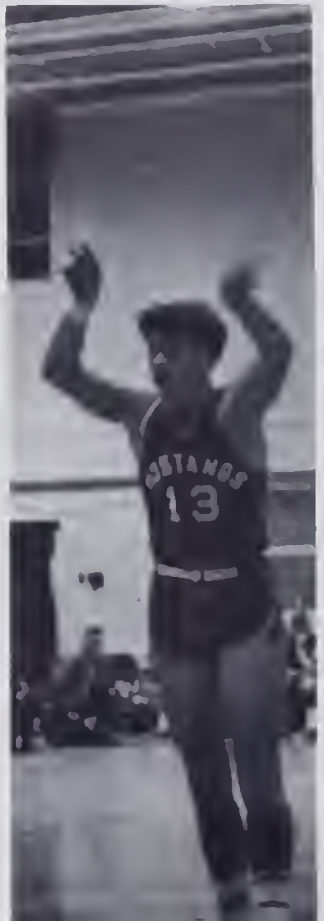


Carl with two.

. . . With all the grace of Swan Lake.

What a way to make a living!

BOO!



The man who makes it all possible.

Remember our basket is over here.

J. V. BASKETBALL

Sporting several new faces, and under the new management of Coach Bronstein, the Junior Varsity squad finished the season with a 7-7 record. High points of the season included stomping Herndon's J.V. and bouncing back from an early scrubbing by James Wood, to scare the young Colonels, who sustained only a three point margin at the final buzzer.

The Mustang Colts gained much experience and promise a galloping season next year.

One more word Mr. Bronstein and . . .

Crazylegs Cruise on the move.

For two or not for two, that is the question.

Byrd with the rebound.

"Cruise — It's orange and it's round, now GET IT!"

Left to Right. Kneeling— Ron Hoke, Clint Snowden, Joe Earman, Bob Farris, Rick Lincoln, Bob Kennedy, Louie Conover, Phil Hannum, Frank King. Standing—Mr. Borches, Pete Sepsis, Manager; Ken Bost, Mike Ellis, Chuck Stickney, Scott Cline, Barry Bushchow, Steve Kaplan, Fred Crahill, Paul Gibson, Mr. Gambill.

BASEBALL

THE NATIONAL PASTIME

District 1-B's defending hardball champions got off to a slow start with a 3-2 loss to Loudown Valley on the home diamond, and a 5-1 loss to 1-A George Marshall, followed by a league win over Fauquier. The '67 starting line-up sported eight senior lettermen, so Mustang fans can expect to see more from the upcoming talent that developed during the season under the guidance of Mr. Gambill and his new assistant Mr. Borches.

TRACK '67

Under the new management of Coach Geoghegan and veteran Field-coach Sommer, the 1967 Track Team showed great potential that developed through the season. At the Herndon Relays, the team took a respectable fifth place and the G.M. veteran Two-Mile relay team of Davies, Hewitt, Crocker and Yeary set a blistering 8:32.2 meet record. Kip Hewitt sparked the Mustangs in a tri-meet at Handley by leaving Herndon's '66 State Champion Miler Jerry McClearen behind in a 4:40.9 mile. The team's home debut ended in an unusually frustrating tie with Clarke County. Pole-vaulter Preston Rose, Hurdler Neall Case, Long-jumper Bill Davies, Distancemen Crocker, Yeary, Dexter, and Hewitt, and Weightman David Comer turned in fine performances. On May 13, G.M. hosted another efficiently organized District meet.

Left to Right. First Row—Mr. Geoghegan, Rob Keeler, Ted Yeary, Brian Dexter, Neall Case, Bill Crocker, Billy Martin, Ed Hannum, Mr. Sommer. Second Row—Jack Sadtler, Tom Shreve, Rick Coyrendall, David Blake, Gary Zieses, John Wright. Third Row—Jim Willcock, Wayne Coates, Walter Porzell, Ralph Jenkins, Jim Anderson, Bill Ridgeway, Leslie Everett, John Hundley. CUSTODIAL STAFF

Working behind the scenes . . .
late into the night . . .
the never-ending job of maintaining a school . . .
But it seems they are never too busy to unlock a door or fix a locker.

CAFETERIA STAFF

Trying to please 1,100 different appetites . . .
with well-balanced meals and a variety of salads and desserts
the Cafeteria Staff is making lunch a pleasure.

From Left to Right. Standing—Miss Janet Ann Payne, Mrs. Ann C. Clark, Mrs. Ida Mae Smith, Mrs. Gladys Layman, Mrs. Louise M. Stuart, Mrs. Alice Fischer, Mrs. Wilda K. Beitle. Sitting—Mrs. Helen R. Nethers, Manager.

A sea of faces . . .
some known,
many unknown . . .
Some pleasant,
some not . . .
They speed down the halls . . .
fill the dances
and cheer in the grandstands . . .
but behind the face
is an individual laughing and learning . . .
each with a class to be proud of . . .
each working toward his own goal.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Left to Right—Joan Crumpler, Secretary; Trisha Kinney, Class Representative; Glenn Deans, President; Not Pictured—James MacKenzie, Vice President; Carolyn Diehl, Treasurer.

CLASS OF '72

You look at that big red building and wonder what lies ahead . . .
You walk through the doors and suddenly find out how much you don't know . . .
"Hey, what are progress reports?"
In the midst of 1,100
new faces George Mason becomes a reality:
Spending the first week trying to get your locker open . . .
Trying to remember
all the names of all those teachers . . .
Wondering whether you'll be mod, grub,
or collegiate and ending up somewhere in the middle . . .
The agony of losing a book . . .
Blushing in the showers . . .
"Where's room 223??"
Trying to remember where the girl's room is . . .
As you gaze down
the long, cold
halls, you realize that you are the Class of 72
and someday
this will be your school to lead . . .
But those halls still look so long . . .

Left to Right—Susie Ames, Class Representative; Bette McCarthy, President; Robbie Werth, Vice President; Gaye Goetz, Secretary.

Shelley Sealock, Treasurer.

You're in High School now . . . not a ninth grader, but . . . a Freshman and things have suddenly changed: being welcome at the night dances . . .
for the first time you can really work together
on class projects . . .
finding out that you are only a subordinate clause . . . DETOUR, your dance . . .
History with Mr. Letiecq . . . "What's the Lone Star?"
Somehow, the class seems to be changing in spirit, maturity, and knowledge . . .
GROWING to attain the unity that only comes through hard work and . . .
for those who stop and look comes a glimpse of the challenge that lies ahead.

CLASS OF '69

A year of thought and work . . . Beginning to feel a part of the aetivities and people that make G.M. what it is . . . yet you're eaught in the middle of it all—the years of being an underelassmen seem far behind you and at the same time the year of your graduation is still out of reaeh—but not out of sight . . .
BUT out of this year of small expeetations comes a elass full of surprises:
A sehool elean-up project that aetually worked!! Selling the Beat-signs again, Psyehotie Dimensions "Who are the Citations, anyway?"
whether taking a nature walk with Mrs. Ropshaw or . . .
having a good laugh with Mrs. Kadwell or . . .
typing your book reports for Mrs. Firkin you feel a new awareness of your class, your sehool, and . . . your future . . .
and . . .
as the bleachers explode with another Johnny Cruise intereeption, the entire school stands up and takes notiee of this elass of surprises—the leaders of 1969.

CLASS OF '68

It is a year of unending challenge . . .
filled with the hopes,
the expectations,
and the frustrations that come from hard work.
A year in which the entire school looks to you for great things . . . and you look among yourselves to find them.
Joanna's Christmas Dance, "Christmas on the Seine"
The Secret Garden of Hearts . . . Jonathan and Reet's Variety Show . . . and finally a Prom that the Senior Class will remember for the rest of their lives.
And in the midst of the turmoil and the tears,
. . . that old school spirit and class pride are reborn
as everyone works together again . . .
as the Class of '68 . . . the Disciples.
The Spaghetti Dinner, with Michelob bottles and candles . . . chopping wood at Harriett's . . . and planting flowers on the hill.
Sweating out those college boards . . . and razzing the Seniors . . .
the Class pastime . . .
and finding your friends are the greatest people in the world.
Making the hardest year of your lives
the happiest.
. . . and as it comes to an end,
thoughts of next September
weigh heavily on your mind . . . but you are prepared . . .
for a Disciple is one who learns
and the Simaritans have taught you well.

Spring and the ending of G.M. '66-'67 bring new ideas, exciting plans and a realization of Growth and maturity acquired during the winter . . .
receiving college acceptances . . . seeking job opportunities . . . planning summer vacations . . .
"Only 72 more days 'til school's out!"
. . . filling out schedules for next year
. . . or preparing for graduation . . . and wondering what G.M. will be like in the fall with new faces and without old ones.

G.M. 1967

G.M. is Growing . . .

in the Maturity that comes from meeting new responsibilities and freedoms . . .

in Unity and understanding between students and faculty . . .

and in the all-encompassing Spirit that makes it all worthwhile . . .

it's Growing fast . . .
don't let it
pass you by . . .
